

Melissa Pritchard (SHP '66)
Daywalka Foundation

Melissa is a professor of English and Women's Studies at Arizona State University, as well as an author of three novels and short stories, and a key supporter and activist for the Daywalka Foundation. Daywalka is a human rights organization that addresses human trafficking, safe migration, and gender-based violence. Melissa will discuss her work with the Daywalka Foundation's Kalam Margins Write project in Kolkata, India.

Irene Cullen, RSCJ (SHP '57)
Sacred Heart Schools of Uganda & Kenya

Sister Cullen is recognized not only for her devoted work as an RSCJ but for her strong commitment to Sacred Heart Schools in the Uganda/Kenya Province in Africa. We look forward to hearing about the 6th year of the Sacred Heart Primary School in Uganda that serves over 350 girls in a very poor and rural area.

Jonny Dorsey (SJSH '99, SHP '03)
FACE AIDS

Jonny Dorsey is a Stanford student and one of the founding members of FACE AIDS, an organization that works to help the millions of people in sub-Saharan Africa living with HIV/AIDS. This organization has created two support groups in refugee camps in Zambia and pays their members to make the beaded pins used in FACE AIDS campaigns. By providing participants with an income and emotional support, FACE AIDS hopes to break the cycle of disease and poverty in the refugee camps.

A Special Alumni Celebration at Sacred Heart Schools

In the Spirit of Mater
Making a Difference...
One Person at a Time

“One thing alone is necessary, the will of God and the work of God's love. May Mater give us the singleness of vision so that we, too, may see the Invisible and the Essential in all.”

- Rev. Mother deLescure

*We sincerely hope you'll return to campus for this special event.
We will all be there to welcome you!*
