

TARYN BRADY

Contact

480-735-9719

taryntaryntaryntaryn@gmail.com

EDUCATION

Arizona State University, (2007 to present; Phoenix, AZ)

Currently attending the Barrett Honors College and the Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication to receive a joint bachelor's and master's degree in journalism and mass communication, specializing in broadcast, with a minor in geography

Mountain View High School, (2003-2007; Mesa, AZ)

EXPERIENCE

Fox 10 Broadcast Meteorology Internship (Spring 2009)

- Gathered information for weather forecasts
- Created maps on Weather Central
- Arranged the order of the maps in the forecast
- Imported the weather information

Arizona Republic, Public Safety Reporter for Online (Fall 2008)

- Reported and wrote breaking news to post on azcentral.com
- Wrote feature stories to be printed in the Arizona Republic

JMC 345 and JMC 315 (Fall 2008)

- Shot and Edited packages with Final Cut pro
- Wrote broadcast copy

Presidential Classroom Communications and Journalism Program (Summer 2007)

- Went to Washington DC and attended press conferences and seminars about journalism
- Participated in simulations designed to give hands-on experience in broadcast news while playing the role of reporters, editors, sources or producers

Yearbook, Mountain View High School (Fall 2005)

- Created pages for yearbook, writing the copy and designing the layout

LEADERSHIP

Miss Rodeo Arizona 2009 (Summer 2009- Summer 2010)

- Engaged in community service
- Public speaking
- Media interviews
- Represented the state of Arizona across the country
- Conducted public relations for Arizona Rodeos
- Garnered sponsors for Miss Rodeo Arizona Inc.

Cowgirls Historical Foundation (Summer 2005- Present)

- Spoke at benefits and fundraisers about the mission statement, to preserve our western heritage
- Performed western line dancing and rope tricks
- Rode in parades and rodeos, such as the Rosebowl Parade and the International Finals Rodeo
- Engaged in Community Service (over 150 hours each year)

Gilbert Delegation to Newtonabbey Ireland (Summer 2008)

- Went to Gilbert, Arizona's sister city Newtonabbey in Northern Ireland as a member of a 14- person delegation
- Spoke to the Irish media
- Taught about the American Western culture to Irish officials
- Taught about the American Western culture to Irish students at their schools
- Performed western dancing a rope tricks in parades and other settings, in front of the Irish public

Gilbert Days Rodeo Senior Princess, Gilbert Promotional Corporation (2004-2006)

- Engaged in public speaking in front of large audiences about the Gilbert Rodeo, western history, and the platform of 'kicking up kindness'
- Rode in parades and rodeos as rodeo royalty
- Live media interviews

HONORS/AWARDS

- Arizona State University Presidential Scholarship
- National Dean's List Dean's List at the Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication
- Presidential Classroom Communications and Journalism Program Attendee
- Top 20 GPA at Mountain View High School
- Prom Court Royalty
- 'Most Talented' of Senior Class
- United States Navy Science Achievement Award
- Medal in Behavioral Science in the Arizona Science and Engineering Fair
- Service Learning Award
- Kicking up Kindness Award
- First Place in several national art competitions

ORGANIZATIONS

Cowgirls Historical Foundation (2005-Present)

Gilbert Promotional Corporation (2000- Present)

Arizona State Horsemen's Association (2006- Present)

SKILLS

Public speaking, organizational, and communication skills Writing news stories Arranging weather forecasts Broadcasting weather Forecasting weather Creating broadcast packages Editing skills with programs such as Final Cut Pro and Photoshop Proficient in Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, Excel, Internet and E-mail