The Linguistic Cycle Workshop II
Arizona State University, Tempe, AZ
25-26 April 2014

Friday 25 April // Language and Literature (LL) 60 (basement)

10 am Elly van Gelderen, Arizona State University
Introduction

10:30 am-12 pm Marianne Mithun, University of Santa Barbara
What Cycles When and Why?

12-1:30 pm Lunch break

MODALS IN FLUX
1:30-2:10 pm Remus Gergel, University of Graz
Rather: Notes on spiral development number 2

2:10-2:50 pm Łukasz Jedrzejowski, Potsdam University
All you need is another ‘need’: on the need cycle in the history of German

2:50-3:10 pm Break

THE PRONOUN CYCLE
3:10-3:30 pm Mariana Bahtchevanova, Arizona State University
The subject cycle and the loss of French object pronouns

3:30-5 pm Tom Givón, University of Oregon
On the pronoun cycle in Ute & maybe elsewhere

Saturday 26 April // Language and Literature (LL) 02 (basement-North end of Building)

THE ANALYTIC CYCLE
9:30-10:45 am John McWhorter, Columbia University
Is Analyticity Normal?

10:45-11:15 am Break

QUANTIFIER CYCLES
11:15-12 pm Johanna Wood, Aarhus University,
Reinforcement and renewal: Germanic so and such.

THE NEGATIVE CYCLE
1:30-2:10 pm Ljuba Veselinova, Stockholm University
The Negative Existential Cycle Revisited

2:10-2:50 pm Johan van der Auwera & Frens Vossen, University of Antwerp
Jespersen Cycles in the Americas

2:50-3:30 pm Clifton Pye, University of Kansas
Non-Cyclic Negation in the Mayan Languages

3:30-4 pm Concluding remarks

Sponsored by the ASU Department of English.
More information: ellyvangelderen@asu.edu